Oct 15 – Oct 20 2013

We will be staying for five nights at the Hotel Sant Agusti, a completely renovated hotel in the heart of the city with free wifi in communal areas. The building was formerly a monastery and retains much of its historic essence.

Day 1: Tues 15 Oct Fly Istanbul to Barcelona and check into the Hotel Sant Agusti

Day 2: Wed 16 Oct The 'Gothic' walking tour. On this guided walking tour we will discover not only the streets, squares and hidden corners of Barcelona, but also its wonderful architecture, ranging from the Roman Walls through to the city's famous Gothic cathedral and its neoclassical palaces.

Day 3: Thu 17 Oct A visit to Montserrat

We take a private coach through picturesque Catalonian villages to the impressive, 1,200 metre-high, multi-peaked mountain of Montserrat, where we visit the Benedictine Abbey of Santa Maria, rumoured to be the home of the Holy Grail of Arthurian legend.

Day 4: Fri 18 Oct Your day for kicking-back. A day to check your photos, edit your writing and wander the city at leisure.

Day 5: Sat 19 Oct The gourmet walking tour Trace the city's gastronomic culture – an important part of its heritage – in this guided tour through the streets of the old town where you will encounter shops and markets that date back centuries including the world-famous Boqueria Market and the city's oldest café, the Café de la Opera.

Day 6: Sun 20 Oct Fly home
